DEMRE – MYRA

Situated in Demre town, Myra used to be a one of the most important of six Lycian cities. Originally a coastal city the gradual buildup of silt from the Demre stream has left it stranded several miles away from the sea. Myra was abandoned after the Arab invasions in the 9th century A.D. The rock tombs and amphitheatre are worth a visit

Simena (KEKOVA): Simena( Kekova) is one of the most beautiful places of the region, one that can be reached by boat When you approach the region by boat or view the areas from the top one of the things that catches your eye the most is the Lycian type sarcophagi in the sea.

Demre (St Nicholas Church)) is the town where Santa Claus first brought joy. Actually, it was St Nicholas who lived and worked in Demre, and who was later transmuted into the jolly Christmas elf. An 11th-century church in Demre once held his earthly remains. Today the Church of St Nicholas is Demre's most visited site.

Çayagzi, 5 km west of Demre, was called Andriake in Roman times, and has more ruins, a decent beach, and a small harbor.

PAMUKKALE & HIERAPOLIS

One of the well - known Natural Wonder of Turkey is described as Pamukkale.

Pamukkale or literary the “ Cotton Castle “ is a shimmering white cascade, formed by limestone-laden hot spring, which have formed stalactites, pot -holes and magical fairy tables. The water is reputed to be the beneficial to the eyes and skins to alleviate ills of asthma, rheumatism and dermatitis. It is exhilarating to paddle through warm water while gazing the ancient fragment of columns below the water’s surface. As much fun as the baths are, do not miss to visit the ancient Hierapolis with its Theatre, Necropolis, Roman Baths, and Agora. The tour returns over Taurus Mountain back to Antalya, where one can enjoy the beautiful scenery of Mountain Villages as well as the Lake District during the journey. Half board accommodation is provided to overnight in Pamukkale.

Pamukkale, 19 km north of Denizli, is Turkey's foremost mineral-bath spa because of its natural beauty: hot calcium-laden waters spring from the earth and cascade over a cliff. As they cool they form dramatic travertines of hard, brilliantly white calcium that form pools.

Hierapolis Ancient City

The extensive ruins of the Roman mineral water spa city of Hierapolis include a grand theater, a vast necropolis, colonnaded street, baths, and numerous other ruined structures.

Pamukkale's Sacred Pool remains from Roman times, when it was the spiritual center of the spa city of Hierapolis.

The modernized pool is Pamukkale's prime public place for a swim.

DEMRE, MYRA, ST. NICHOLAS CHURCH & KEKOVA ISLAND

(Combination of Bus & Yacht Tour)

This is one of the most popular tours among our programmes, which last full day. This fascinating tour enables the clients to visit the ancient history while relaxing and sunbathing during the yacht tour to sunken Islands. Along the northern shore of Islands, structural movement over the years have caused some of the ancient houses to be totally submerged, while remains of the others are scattered along the coastline. During the cruise by yacht, the fascinating Lycian Necropolis, chest type tombs and the ruins of ancient houses will be seen in distance, even underwater. The finest examples of Lycian funerary architecture are to be found at Myra, near the expanding present day town Demre. Beside all these, the Church of St. Nicholas, who was the patron saint of children is situated in the heart of little town Demre. Enjoy this splendid full day tour in combination with bus and yacht.

OLYMPOS & THE FIRES OF CHIMAERA

It is one of the most exciting excursions in the nature as well as in history. The ancient site of Olympos dates back to Hellenistic times when it was an important Lycian city and became famous as a place of worship honoring Hephaestos or Vulcan, the God of Fire. Located on a beautiful sandy bay, the ruins are spread out on either side of the Ulupinar River and include a Byzantine bathhouse with mosaic floors, a marble temple entrance, a theatre, and some excavated tombs. The shoreline is also a major protected nesting site for sea turtles. On the rocky slopes above the ancient city are a series of eternal flames issuing from cracks in the rock, caused by the combustion of natural gas seeping out of the mountain. It is possible to extinguish them briefly, but they will always re-ignite and are most impressive in the dark when at their most visible. The fire that comes out of the ground is said to be coming from the mouth of Chimaera, a mythical fire-breathing monster with the head of a lion, the body of a goat and a snake's tail, who was slain by the Lydian hero, Bellerophon on his winged horse, Pegasus.

Olympos is an ancient city which is located in a valley at the south coast of Turkey, 90 km southwest of Antalya city near the Town of Kumluca. The former city of Olympos was founded in the Hellenistic period, presumably taking its name from nearby Mount Olympos, one of over twenty mountains with the name Olympos in the Classical world.

Çirali is most famous for the Chimera, a natural eternal flame located on a mountainside at the north end of Çirali village. The flames are burning a sort of methane gas that has been venting from the earth on this rocky slope for thousands of years.

SAGALASSOS & INSUYU CAVE (Mini Anatolian Trip)

It's one of the best tours to discover Turkish life, nature over Taurus Mountain and history. On route visiting the lake of the Karacaören Dam and enjoy the nature surrounding. After having refreshment visiting the ancient ruins of Sagalassos which are situated not very far from the town of Aglasun in the province of Burdur and the ancient city lies on Mount Akdag, a spur of the Western Taurus range at an altitude of 1600 meters. Then in the town visit an old Ottoman Mosque surrounding with cherry trees. On the way back visiting the second largest known cave of the world called Insuyu. There are millions of stalactites and stalagmites as well as nine pools in the cave which is almost 600 meters long and visited by the diabetics.

SAGALASSOS: The archaeological site of Sagalassos is located in southwest Turkey, near the present town of Ağlasun (Burdur province); roughly 110 km to the north of Antalya. Large-scale excavations started in 1990. Most of the buildings in Sagalassos are from Hellenistic and Roman periods.

INSUYU CAVE: The most appealing feature of Burdur is Insuyu, the second largest cave of the world. It is 12 kilometers from Burdur. There are millions of stalactites and stalagmites as well as nine pools in the cave which is 597 m long and it is good for wandering in little boats. Since the water in the cave is curing for diabetes it is widely visited by diabetics.

KONYA & CAPPADOCIA

Very impressive three days tour to the inland of Anatolia. This tour connects you to reach the original Anatolian towns, cities and civilisations of Seljuk Empire. First day visit to Konya, allow you to see the whirling dervishes' museum and the Mausoleum of mystical philosopher Mevlana. Drive along the plain plateau of middle Anatolia to arrive Cappadocia makes you feel as if crossing over the ancient Silk Road. Second day full day visit at Cappadocia Region to Kaymaklı underground city (consists of seven floors), Göreme open-air museum (the commune town of bishops, priests and nuns in early Christian period), Avanos Town and Ürgüp Fairy Chimneys and return to Antalya in the afternoon and visit the Sultan Han Kervansaray in Aksaray. Drive over Taurus Mountains back to Antalya while gazing the beautiful scenery of Anatolian villages.

The natural rock citadel of Uçhisar is the tallest point in Cappadocia, visible for a great distance from the region's other towns such as Ürgüp and Avanos. one of the main reasons of visitors go there is to climb to the top of the tall rock outcrop via tunnels and enjoy the spectacular panoramic view, the best view of Cappadocia except for that which you get from a hot-air balloon.

The Göreme Valley holds the region's best collection of painted cave-churches. Medieval orthodox Christian monks (1000-1200 AD) carved the caves from the soft volcanic stone and decorated them with elaborate Byzantine frescoes. Underground cities, troglodyte cave-cities were excavated as early as Hittite times, and expanded over the centuries as various marauding armies traversed Central Anatolia in search of captives and plunder.
